

Public Notice from the desk of:

The Ombudsman for

The South African Assembly ©

Public Notice Number : 991291630

With Reference to Unlawful Notice and Fraudulent Actions

by living men and women, who have been placed on time-out from The Assembly.

It is noted and recorded herewith that the notice PNTSAA260825-1 being circulated is an un-lawful notice as well as have been edited by 3d party software.

The public notice number related to this is not issued by the Land Recording Office, nor has the contents thereof originated from the South African Assembly ©

The man and woman circulating this information, has unlawfully initiated the circular(s) as both have officially been informed that the matter has been referred to the Ombudsman, who has already begun the process of Fact-Finding in order to populate a formal report.

With their persistence in spreading unlawful information, they have merely proved their total disregard for Assembly Protocols and Procedures as well as a collaborative mind-set to build according to trial and tested guidelines set by International Assemblies.

Their continuous disregard for Assembly protocols and procedures as well firm guidelines being disregarded, have called for We The People's voice, from The South African Assembly's © , General Assembly, to speak, which so have spoken loudly and clearly.

Both parties have been placed on time-out from The Assembly, affording both the opportunity to course correct, with a re-entry possibility beyond the time-out, as voiced by the General Assembly.

The actions from both parties as well as the men and women circulating this information, in support of their plight, sharing and or contributing to the momentum of this matter are supporting unlawful actions.

Circulating or contributing to any info that may continue to tarnish the standing Name of The South African Assembly© as well as the men and women within, circulating any other branded documentation, website info , LRO info or information related to the National Credential Cards being issued by The South African Assembly © are doing so supporting unlawful action and will carry the full weight of consequences.

These parties have not returned The South African Assembly Assets as requested, instead stole rightful assets in doing-so and are making use of it unlawfully.

This matter is of the utmost seriousness in nature to The South African Assembly © and all involved and it is herewith reiterated that proper findings related to the internal matter, will be release by the desk of the ombudsman to the necessary channels upon finalization. All Fact-Finding is executed according to The Assembly SODAS methodology of dealing with grievances.

For any man or woman to gain reference of the nature of this issue that has caused the snowball, please observe the following article by Anna von Reitzinger: <http://www.paulstramer.net/2022/09/a-message-to-all-state-assemblies.html>

By: Willem:Fourie.(c)

Ombudsman