"All men are created equal by their creator with unalienable Rights, such as Life, Liberty, and Pursuit of Happiness.

Such Rights are protected; under the Land and Soil Jurisdiction."

Public Notice: Dated 25 June 2025

Public notice from the Southern African States Assembly

The Southern African States Assembly (SASA) wishes to inform the public of an important initiative regarding individual rights and sovereignty.

Following recent discussions with lawful Status Correction and or Emancipation groups across Africa, SASA reaffirms its commitment to safeguarding the rights and assets of all individuals within our jurisdiction. Our goal is to promote peace, harmony, and well-being, empowering living men and women to reclaim their inherent sovereignty and self-governance.

We recognize that many have been misidentified or presumed lost under current disruptive systems. Our process of "status correction" aims to lawfully rectify these presumptions, restoring individuals to their true, rightful standing as living men and women born on the land in cooperation with individual groups who share common objectives with SASA. This is not a request for freedom but a declaration of the natural rights that have always belonged to us by way of following the "blue print" of Anna Maria von Reitzinger.

Participation involves completing the status correction process through the Southern African States Assembly and its Land Recording Office. Support and further information are available through designated SASA liaisons.

We invite all interested parties to join us in this movement towards self-empowerment and lawful self-governance. Together, we can build a future of independence and sovereignty.

For more details or to get involved, please contact your local SASA liaison within your respective groups.
